- 6) Mercy rule: 10 after 5 innings
- 7) Teams will manage their own pitching.
- 8) An "Additional Hitter" Rule will be allowed. The "AH" Rule is optional. The "AH" is a 10th hitter placed anywhere in the line-up. The "AH" can be substituted for and the re-entry rule will apply. The "AH" is considered a defensive position and can play in the field. DH allowed in 15u thru 18u ONLY
- 9) Roster Batting will be allowed. ( Encouraged for all regular season games)
  - a. Teams can bat a 9-player lineup, a 10-player lineup using an additional hitter (AH), or roster bat all present uniformed players. The lineup must be declared before the start of the game and used the entire game.
  - b. If a team chooses to roster bat, then all players other than the nine defensive position players are additional hitters and can move freely in defensive positions.
  - c. If a team is batting all present, uniformed players, with no eligible substitutes listed on the lineup card, and the number of players is 9 or 10, that team is considered to be roster batting for the purposes of defensive substitutions and courtesy runners, unless the coach has specifically declared otherwise at the pregame plate conference. If additional players arrive after the game has started, those players are placed at the end of the batting order. If the coach declares at the pregame plate conference that he is not roster batting, the late players are listed on the lineup as eligible substitutes.
